“ I met Mr. Archie back in February 2020, when he was my brother's roommate at the Nursing Home. He was such a character. We always talked, I'd go get him fruits, juices, and a few treats each day, even bring him sugarless candy. It would always brighten up his day, and mine too. I'll never forget the day my brother was being discharged...Mr. Griffin sat there holding his hands out for me to hold. I held his hands and he started crying as he was giving me a hug, and telling me how much he loved me. A nurse walked in with her mouth dropped, in shock, and my brother told her, "you never know"...

Mr Griffin gave me his cell number wanting me to keep in touch. Called several times just to check on him, and hadn't checked back on him since the end of April, but he's been on my mind. He was a pleasure to know, and gave me such joy everyday.

I am SO SORRY, for your loss. Your dad always talked about his family, how proud of what you all have accomplished, and he truly loved each of you.

“ When Archie first saw me, he said that I was his friend. We went to Church together; out to eat together, talked together, and yes he was at my supper table ,when I had cooked too much food. He loved to eat. He would talk of his working days, and I would talk about mine. He told me that he loved his wife, Elizbeth and how much he missed her. He no longer has to miss her. He's home with Mother/
