“ I remember when y'all lived on Easy Street, close to Margie and Jim and we'd play canasta cards. Troy Jr. and I were young and dumb! I remember when y'all traveled, I believe with 3 children to Salt Lake City in a Volkswagen Bug. I loved y'all then and I love you now, but as usual, from a long distance! My deepest condolences and may peace and comfort be yours

“ Harmon and I had so many good days watching the kids grow. Camping trips sitting around the fire because if Clarence could build a fire and sit around he was a happy man. One of the funniest things he did was when Bill my son was little we were camping somewhere and he came out of the woods sounding like a wild hog and nearly scared Bill to death. We still laugh about that, Everybody but Bill. Clarence Mcdonald you will be missed

“ Condolences to the family from a childhood family friend of the community of Mertz Station, Cottage Hill area, Mertz School, from the J. Fred Lundy family of Pleasant Valley Road and Zion Baptist family. I am Iris Lundy Anderson, friend of Jeanette Roberts who renewed our acquaintance in 2003, when I joined the Dauphin Way Baptist Church as organist. I know Clarence will be missed.
