

Naomi Kay Barron

March 9, 1939 - February 12, 2020

Naomi Kay Barron passed away peacefully, with her family by her side, Wednesday, February 12, 2020 at Mobile Infirmary Hospital, Mobile, Alabama. Kay was 80 years young. A life long resident of Mobile, Alabama. She was born on March 9, 1939 to the late John T. Fell and Ethel (Whitehead) Fell, in Anniston, Alabama. Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Cary A. Barron; son, J. Michael Clayton; sister, Ruth Conner; brother-in-law, Ed Conner. Kay is survived by her daughter, Cindy (Robert) Vinson and daughter-in-law, Sharon Lyn Jones Clayton. Kay was an avid reader of many different genres such as history, historical fiction and mysteries, but her favorite was the Bible. "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the work of truth" 2 Timothy 2:15. She truly enjoyed good television mysteries, old westerns and more. Kay loved to paint and kept a closet filled with small paint bottles with the shades of a rainbow. But most of all Kay adored her husband, Cary. Kay and Cary lived in Italy for a few years, where Cary worked, and traveled seeing the sites of Italy. She was the love of his life. She loved her family, her friends and her fellow church members. Kay attended Regency Church of Christ where she was a faithful longtime member, as long as her health allowed her to attend. Kay truly enjoyed her games, dominos, cards, and she was an excellent chess player. We would like to thank her many friends and neighbors who visited often and especially minister Allan Eldridge. Funeral service will be held on Friday, February 14, 2020 at 12 noon with visitation from 10 am until service time. Interment will be in Serenity Memorial Gardens.
