“ As a school teacher I love all of my students, but Henry was one that really stood out. He was SO smart, yet so humble, kind, thoughtful... I don't believe he missed 1 problem in any subject that whole year. I especially remember one time when I told the class that I had a problem pronouncing the word warm, it would come out worm. The class laughed and Henry thought for a moment and said, say “war” then add the “m”. And, it worked! Loved reconnecting with him when he was a teenager and seeing his good character had only strengthened. And, then seeing him happily married and the dad of triplets!!! What a wonderful legacy he leaves behind for all of us to remember and cherish. To all of his family, you are so loved and we will be praying for God's love to give you peace to continue to do the work he has for you until he calls you home. God bless.

“ As a high school classmate of Henry's I have memories of him being one of the kindest guys around. Reconnecting on Facebook, many years later, I learned he had a sweet wife and 3 precious children. As in his younger years, he was quick to give a funny comment or offer help if needed, as is the case when one of my kiddos needed some help on a math equation. He was quick to offer up one of his girls to give mine some guidance and walk her through how to solve the problem. I know his leadership, love and kindness will be missed by his family and friends. I'm saddened to know the world we know has lost one of the good ones. Praying for your family Henry as they embark on this walk without you. RIP, friend. --Jenny Riley

“ Henry was such a wonderful friend/ brother and a person who loved to laugh, Mandy and I are Best Friends. I remember how Mandy, Henry and I would all go skating and all the good times in the Youth Group under Lee McDougald. Henry you will be missed, but we will see you soon. God bless and sending prayers of comfort to the family
